

FIRST PRIZE IN INTERNATIONAL' NASA PROJECT FOR SWAMI SANT DASS PUBLIC SCHOOL' STUDENTS

It was truly a remarkable and outstanding achievement for Swami Sant Dass Public School, Jalandhar Students as their trio of budding scientists Prateek, Anan Goyal and Saksham Mago, students of class 10th made a mark for themselves in the international arena by bagging FIRST PRIZE in the Elysian Project on the theme 'NASA Space Settle Design Project' There were 4298 entries involving 14,359 students in this project. The trio won First prize in the contest. The winners have been invited in 'ISDC conference 2020' to discuss next model with future Apollo Astronauts and AL Globus, The project was about settlement in the orbits of earth and mars having all the earth like facilities. The Principal T.P.Kaur and management of the school lauded the efforts of students on this outstanding achievement.

