CLASS-V SUBJECT- ENGLISH

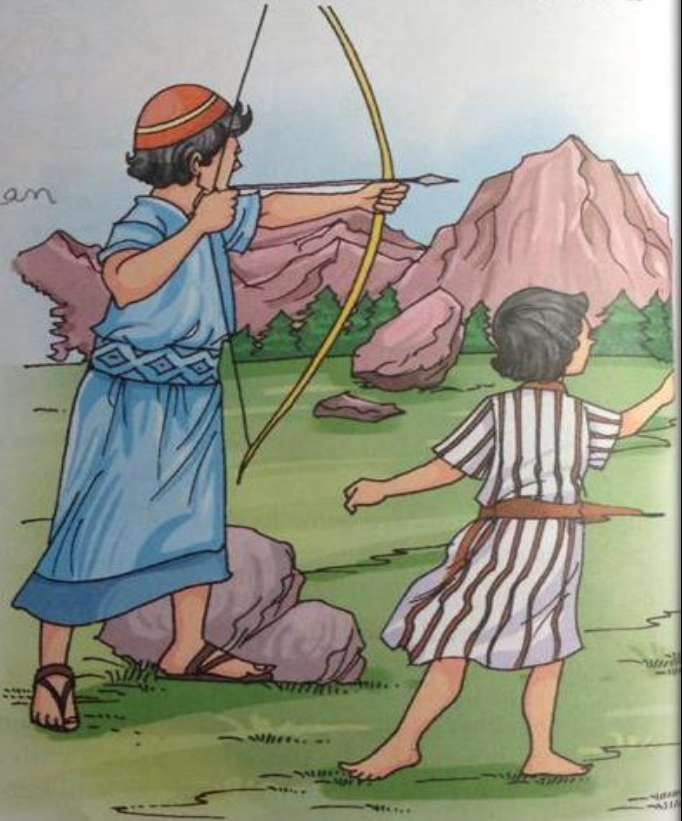

While David was playing the lyre for Saul, as he usually did, he (Saul) ^{threw} hurled a spear in his direction twice but it eluded him both times. David realised that he must be very careful.

Saul ordered his son Jonathan and some of the attendants to kill David. But Jonathan warned David of his father's intentions. He also reasoned with his father on David's behalf. King Saul relented and assured Jonathan that David's life would be spared.

Once more war broke out, and David went out and fought the Philistines and was successful again. Saul, as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, tried to pin down David once again. That night David made good his escape and somehow made it to Jonathan. He asked his friend why King Saul was after him and why he wanted him dead. Jonathan assured him that he would not die.

He said, "My father doesn't do anything, great or small, without letting me know. Why would he hide this from me? It isn't so!" David ^{insisted} insisted that the king would not tell his son his ^{intention} intentions because of their friendship.

Jonathan and David made a plan to find out King Saul's real intention. Jonathan would then advise David accordingly. But David was worried about Jonathan's safety that King Saul would turn on him as well. Jonathan and David made another covenant. In three days, after Jonathan finds out what King Saul intends to do with David, he would shoot three arrows near a certain rock. If he instructs his servant boy that the arrows are near, then all was well with David. If Jonathan instructs the boy that the arrows are beyond, then David would have to flee for his life.

eluded: escaped

reasoned: talked with (someone) in a sensible way in order to try to change that person's thoughts or behaviour relented: agreed to do or accepted something that you have been resisting or opposing pin down: (here) to kill hurled, threw

The third day, Jonathan shot his arrows and announced that they were beyond the boy. When the boy was sent away, David appeared to Jonathan out of hiding. They hugged and wept. Jonathan told him to go in peace.

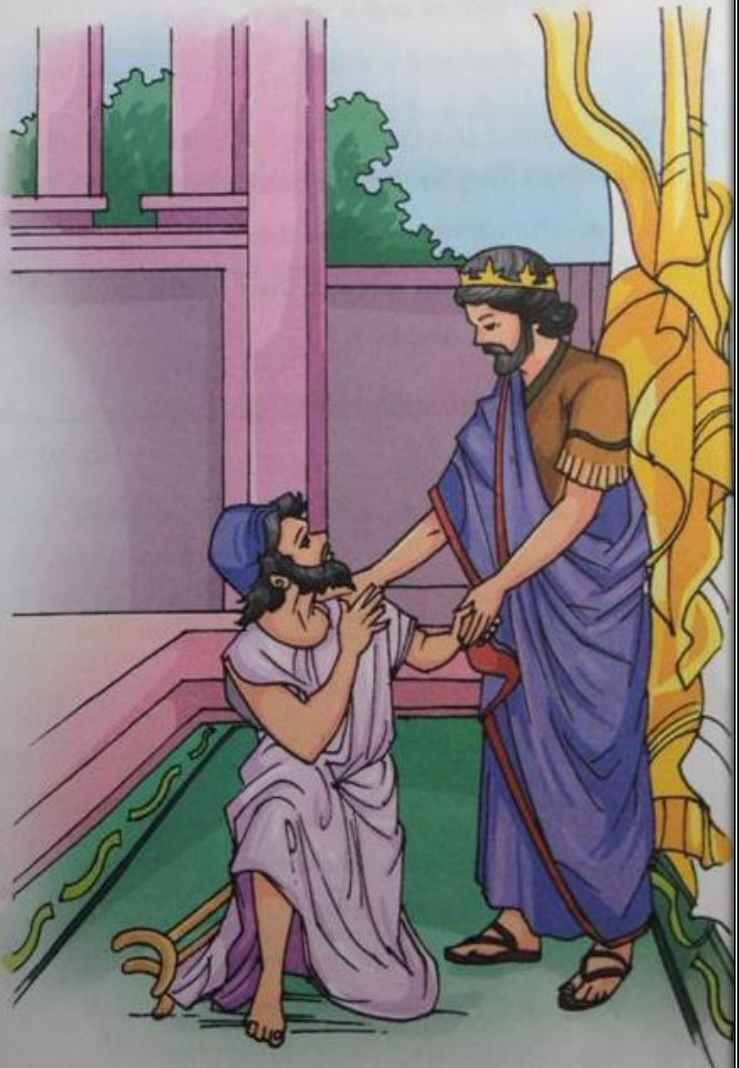

After some time, in a battle against the Philistines, three of King Saul's sons, including Jonathan, died the same day. When Saul heard this news, he took his own life by falling on his sword. When David heard about this, he lamented for Jonathan: "I am distressed over you, my brother Jonathan; you were very dear to me."

Some more years passed by and David became the King of Israel. While he was in the throne, resting after waging countless battles, David asked, "Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

A servant of Saul's household named Ziba, was summoned. He informed David that Jonathan had left behind a son, Mephibosheth, lame in both feet.

David ordered that Mephibosheth be brought to his royal palace. When Mephibosheth appeared before David, he was assured that he would be shown kindness for the deeds of his father Jonathan and that all the land that belonged to his grandfather Saul would be restored to him. He was also invited to always dine at David's table.

David never forgot his vow to Jonathan. Clearly, David had learned much from Jonathan's loyalty and honour, and his willingness to stick loyally to a friend even when such loyalty came at a high price.

lamented: expressed sorrow, regret or unhappiness about something distressed: feeling or showing extreme unhappiness or pain
